

A WORKSHOP AND LUNCH FOR CLERGY

Too Hot to Handle?

Biblical Tools for Preaching in an Age of Climate Change

DR. ROBERT MARTIN
Associate Professor of Church Leadership and Practical Theology, Saint
Paul School of Theology, with a PhD, Princeton Theological Seminary.

REV. TOM ARE
Senior Pastor, Village
Presbyterian Church, and graduate of Presbyterian College in South Carolina, Union
Presbyterian Seminary, and Yale Divinity School.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17

11:00 a.m.—1:30 p.m.

Avila University, Whitfield Hall, 11901 Wornall, KCMO

What's Faith Got to Do With It? Biblical/Theological Perspectives on Environmental Stewardship

by Dr. Robert Martin

Presenting the Message Without Getting Burned

by Rev. Tom Are

FEE $30 ($15 for seminarians), payable at the door, includes lunch. Scholarships available.

REGISTRATION Please pre-register by Oct. 14.

Contact Angela at ssckregister@yahoo.com or 414-241-7850. For more information: sskc.org

SCHEDULE

- 10:45—Registration
- 11:00—Prayer and welcome
- 11:10—Talk by Dr. Martin
- 11:55—Lunch
- 12:25—Talk by Rev. Tom Are
- 1:15—Closing

SPONSORED BY

Fostering Earthcare
in congregations