

Where on Earth are we going?

And what can we do about it?

Attend a Day of Spiritual Renewal and Hope

Awakening the Dreamer, Changing the Dream Symposium

Saturday, January 25, 9:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.
Village Presbyterian Church, 6641 Mission Road, Room 228

A profound inquiry into a bold vision: to bring forth an environmentally sustainable, spiritually fulfilling, and socially just human presence on Earth.

This highly-acclaimed program, presented worldwide, combines videos of inspiring speakers with thought-provoking exercises, all welcoming you into a state of commitment and optimism about our future. You'll see that you are part of a worldwide groundswell of Spirit-led, creative solutions to our global problems.

Facilitators - RoseTherese Huelsman, an educator and theologian, and Kathy Outlaw, an environmental activist.

"This symposium has given me the purpose and drive to change my life. Everyone working for or wanting a better world must attend this." - JS, Concord, CA.

Cost – $25, payable at the door, lunch included. Scholarships available.

Please Pre-Register by January 17: Contact Marianne Weber at 913-671-2333 or marianne.weber@villagepres.org. Walk-ins welcome. Please specify if you want a vegetarian lunch. If you register after the 17th, bring own lunch. Adjusted cost is $20.

For more information: See reverse side or visit www.awakeningthedreamer.org

Sponsored by Sustainable Sanctuary Coalition, sckc.org

